

Laura Cody McNaughton Public Health and Community Service Award

Applications are being accepted for the Laura Cody McNaughton Public Health and Community Service Award of $8,000.00. Candidates will demonstrate a commitment to service within their school and community. The 2022 Laura Cody McNaughton Community Health and Public Service Award will be awarded to one graduating senior who exemplifies Laura's leadership and giving spirit, and, is pursuing further education and training in a field where these principles may be put into practice.

Applications are available in high school guidance offices. The deadline is Friday, April 29, 2022.

Laura Cody McNaughton was valedictorian of Springfield High School, Class of 2000. She was involved in school and community activities throughout her years in the Springfield School System. After receiving a Masters of Public Health and working for public health organizations in the Boston area, she returned to Windsor County and served as a District Director for the Vermont Department of Public Health.

This scholarship will honor her many contributions to the greater Springfield community throughout her years.
